

Trinity Christian School's 24/7 Policy:

Twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, everyone is challenged to honor Christ. TCS requires students to honor these standards on and off campus, which upholds our highest commitment to Biblical principles. Character and moral absolutes do not stop when TCS's students are dismissed at the end of the school day.

TCS has been, and always will be, concerned about the behavior of students both on and off campus. In no way does TCS want to usurp the parental authority or create a legalistic atmosphere; TCS simply wants to be a school that unapologetically advances Biblical standards, moral absolutes, and a personal commitment to our Savior and Lord.

TCS wants our students to internalize these Biblical principles:

- Student agrees that he/she has or is in pursuit of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Student agrees to regularly pursue opportunities to grow in spirit and in truth.
- Student agrees to strive for excellence as a student in all that he/she says and does.
- Student agrees to keep the guiding principles of the school and be a good steward of those things the school provides that enhance the learning experience.
- Student agrees to obey the Bible in speech and conduct.
- Student agrees to respect and cooperate with those in authority at TCS.
- Student agrees to abstain from alcohol, drugs, tobacco and vaping liquids/electronic cigarettes.
- Student agrees to abstain from cursing, sexual immorality, dissension, and cheating.
- Student agrees to maintain a lifestyle based on biblical standards of moral conduct. The student understands that moral misconduct includes, but is not limited to, sexuality immorality, any violation of the unique roles of male and female, cheating, lying and stealing.
- Student agrees to cultivate good social relationships with his/her peers and teachers, making sure to treat others with consideration and courtesy. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of social media such as texting, Snapchat, Instagram, Twitter, etc.
- Student agrees to the dress code that has been set by TCS, as stated in the Parent/Student Handbook.
- Student agrees to submit to the discipline policy of TCS, as stated in the Parent/Student Handbook.
- Student understands that once he/she enrolls at TCS, he/she is a part of the TCS family wherever he/she is. Therefore, the student agrees to abstain from behavior, both on and off campus, which would dishonor Jesus Christ, TCS, the church, his/her family, and himself/herself.
- Student understands that TCS can hold himself/herself accountable for any negative behavior, both on and off campus, at any time during the year.

If TCS's parents/guardians and/or student does not agree and cannot support these standards, then the parents/guardians and student may want to reconsider whether TCS is right for their family. Of course, TCS realizes that there will be differences of opinion on certain issues, but TCS does desire support as we continue to focus on advancing a genuine Christ-honoring school. TCS is grateful to partner with parents/guardians as TCS continues to advance an educational training center based on Biblical principles.

Violations of TCS's 24/7 policy may be grounds for disciplinary action by the TCS administration. Specific violations will be considered on a case-by-case basis in partnership between the TCS administration and the student's parents but may include dismissal from TCS.
